

Useful Holiday Gifts

The selection of a suitable Christmas gift for a man or a boy is an easy proposition at this store. We have so many "just right" things that it is only a matter of choice in making selections.

The things a Man or a Boy appreciate, most—the things he would buy for himself—are here in great variety and the picking is now at its best.

Perhaps a few suggestions would help you decide just what would be best to give.

Neckwear

A new tie is just the thing for him—an inexpensive gift that you can be sure will be acceptable and in which you can display your good taste. It's something you can make more of a showing in than any other gift for the same cost. The complete line shown here in every desirable style and price will help you to a quick and proper selection.

25c to $1.50.

Hosiery

You won't "put your foot" in it by giving hosiery; you'll show your good sense. And amid the flood of less useful gifts the recipient will bless the giver of any of the handsome new effects in every desirable style and quality, which are priced so reasonably.

25c to $2.50.

Gloves

Some one you know would appreciate a pair of gloves from the magnificent assortment you'll find in this store. Every standard make—every desirable style of leather and color in dress and street gloves, at prices from the lowest to the best.

50c to $2.50.

Umbrellas

Every kind of rain-stick except the "non-loseable" variety. One of the impersonal gifts you can give a business friend as a mark of remembrance without sentiment. You don't have to worry about style or quality or right price, if you choose one from the immense assortment shown here.

$1.00 to $10.00.

Smoking

Jackets

There's tone and comfort in a house coat or a smoking jacket. Looks nicer about the house than shirt sleeves, and saves the bother of "dressing up" if unexpected company comes in. Something here to please the "freakish" or the most conservative man—price to suit you.

$5.00 to $15.00.

Shirts

No chance of going wrong in this assortment. A useful, sensible, pleasing present to often forgotten in the flood of fancied gifts. New patterns, attached or detached cuffs.

$1.25 to $3.00.

These are only a few of the many Suitable Gifts for Men. Come and see how many things we can show you that would be just right for his Christmas.

JACK FROST is afraid of BUCKS HEATERS. Sidney Stevens Implement Co., Exclusive agents.

General Superintendent Young.—Jos. H. Young, general superintendent of the Southern Pacific, with headquarters at San Francisco, arrived from Denver this morning in his private car "San Jose" and, after greeting old Ogden friends for an hour or two, continued on to Salt Lake on private business.

Superintendent Young is establishing an enviable record as a railroad official on the coast, and is drawing on the Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line for assistants whenever opportunity occurs—and that doesn't injure the service or detract from successful railroad.

Both MALLEABLE and STEEL BUCKS ranges are sold on approval and the assortment is the largest in Ogden. Sidney Stevens Implement Co., exclusive agents.

Hot stuff—hot stuff is Lewis' Good Coal. Phone 149.

Two Fingers Amputated.—Frank Lloyd, Jr., employed as a car repairer by the Southern Pacific company, is gradually recovering from the shock of a serious injury sustained yesterday. Mr. Lloyd was in a box car coupling, when the car was bumped into by a switch engine and Lloyd's right hand caught. Two fingers were injured so that amputation was necessary and he is resting as easily as possible under the circumstances.

FOR SALE.—If you are looking for a snap in Real Estate, look on page 2; there you will find listed, E. F. Bray, at 410 25th St.—The snap of a lifetime.

Before buying your dishes, drop in at E. A. OLSEN'S. Examine our stock and compare our prices. We are closing out.

Common Point.—Replying to inquiries from a Standard reporter this morning, F. Fouts, the new Rio Grande agent in this city, said that Ogden had been recognized as a common point on the Western Pacific and that freight rates west over that line were identical with Salt Lake schedules, except at one or two points close to the capital city, where the tariff was lower.

EZ-Money Kelly.—Money to loan on any good real estate. Geo. J. Kelly.

Buy your Christmas Chinaware at E. A. OLSEN'S. He's closing at an enormous reduction.

Trains Late.—While the Southern Pacific and Rio Grande trains were nearly on time today, passenger trains from the north over the Oregon Short Line and from the east over the Union Pacific were from two to six hours late—and that is regarded as a pretty good record for this weather by local railroad officials.

E. A. OLSEN is closing out his line of beautiful glass and China ware at bedrock prices. Come early and take your pick.

REPAIRING. We repair all makes of typewriters. Get our estimates on your typewriter before having it repaired. L. H. Becraft, corner Grant and Twenty-fourth streets.

Coal Supply Short.—Several of the coal yards were without coal yesterday. During the night a few cars were diverted at this point, which relieved the shortage. Coal dealers say they do not anticipate a repetition of the fuel famine of two years ago.

For Rent.—Typewriters from $2 to $4 per month. "Good ones, too." Call in and see them. L. H. Becraft, corner Grant and Twenty-fourth street.

STORAGE at reasonable rates, in good brick building. If you need any room, consult John Seweroff & Sons Company.

Smallpox at Harrisville.—It was reported yesterday that the family of Harvey Taylor at Harrisville was quarantined, but that is an error. There are a number of cases of small-pox in that community, but the Taylor family has escaped the affliction.

SUPPLIES for YOUR typewriters can be had at L. H. Becraft's place, corner Grant and Twenty-fourth street.

GREAT ATTENDANCE AT YALE-HARVARD GAME.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 17.—An official statement from the office of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad company shows that on November 13, 1909, the day of the Yale-Harvard football match here, 32,395 passengers were carried by the road and of that number 17,844 were carried from New York City. For the game in 1907, 33,999 were carried, but this year 40,000 more were carried from New York, which makes the receipts this year $45,058, as compared with $44,528 two years ago.

zero, and at about sunrise it was nine degrees above zero. Since that hour the temperature has ranged from 19 to 29 degrees above zero. A raw north wind blew during the morning, and it had much to do with the atmospheric effect upon those out of doors.

In Ogden canyon it was six above zero this morning and Thursday night the mercury fell one degree below zero.

Local railroad officials were advised this morning that thirty members of the South Omaha Livestock Exchange will attend the Wyoming State Wool convention at Cheyenne, January 3 and 4, and immediately after the convention adjourns will leave for Ogden to attend the annual convention of the National Wool Growers' association which convenes in this city on the morning of Jan. 6.

It is also announced that many of those who attend the Cheyenne convention will also attend the National convention and an effort will be made to secure a special train for the trip.

On Special Train.

If favorable rates are obtained for the special, it is thought that from one hundred to two hundred Wyomingites will invade Ogden on the evening of January 5, and that the visitors will become an important factor in convention proceedings the following day.

COLD NIGHT AND COOL DAY LIVESTOCK MEN ARE COMING

MERCURY WENT DOWN TO EIGHT DEGREES ABOVE ZERO.

At Sunrise It Was 9 Degrees Above Zero—Colder Weather in Ogden Canyon—Below Zero.

This was a cold December morning, the coldest of the season. As some of the older ones expressed it, "It was much like the mornings of the 70's and early 80's."

For blocks the squeaking and clinking of the wagons as they passed over the frozen snow could be heard. Frozen whisks were in evidence and mudflats were seen during the early morning. And yet, comparatively speaking, the weather was not extremely cold. The thermometer lacked many degrees of showing as low a temperature as is found in what is termed "a cold country."

At 3 o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 8 degrees above
